TO A VERY NICE YOUNG LADY I WISH YOU THE BEST OF LUCK IN THE FUTURE.
DWAYNE WHITFIELD '84 (83)

It does not seem that the "little girl" who attempted a solo at the Jr. High has come this far so successfully and so quickly but reality cannot be avoided. She have been the back-bone of the group for a long time and now we must bid you farwell. You have developed into a magnificent soprano and I am honored ~~to~~ to have had the opportunity of working with you. May God ever bless you and keep you in the center of His will. You are blessed and have a great talent - because of this, you are forever obligated to make yourself available and a leader to assist others who may not be so fortunate -

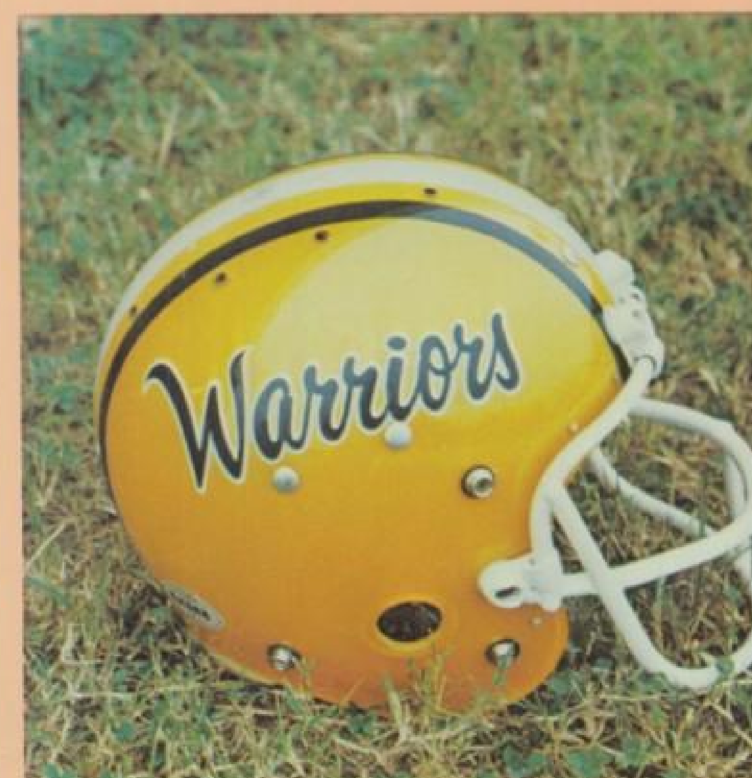

Best wishes and
All my love

THE END.....

As the end of summer approached, the remembrance of past school days was in everyone's mind. No matter how hard we tried to forget it, the constant reminders of school were everywhere.

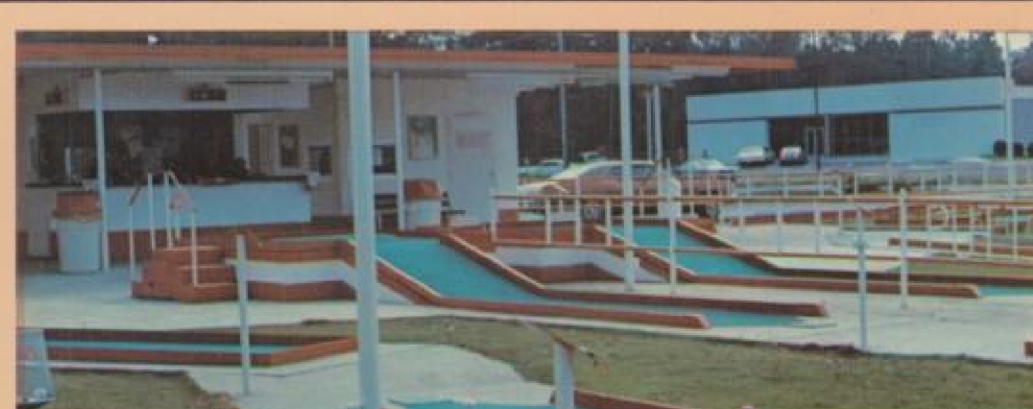

Back-to-school sales threatened to destroy the last peaceful, lazy days of summer. No more lying in the sun by pools. No more fast, furious games of Putt-Putt.

As Labor Day was just around the corner, the death-defying days of school were just ahead.

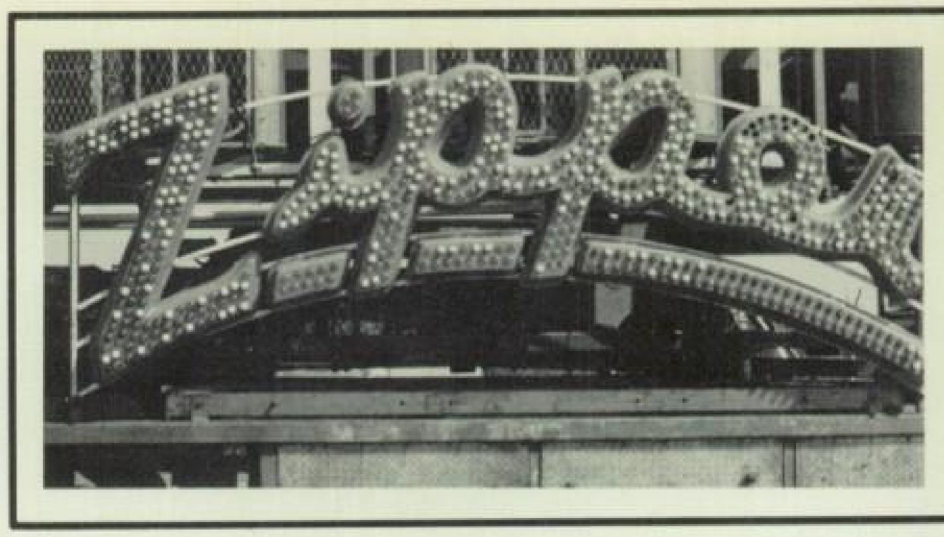

Eastern Wayne High School's empty hallways and vacant parking lots were soon filled with the constant hum of noise and the rush of feet. As doors were opened on Orientation Day, students noticed changes around school.

The campus had the added attractions of blue and gold benches in the smoking area, extended parking spaces for those fortunate enough to have their own transportation, and a new Warrior track and field.

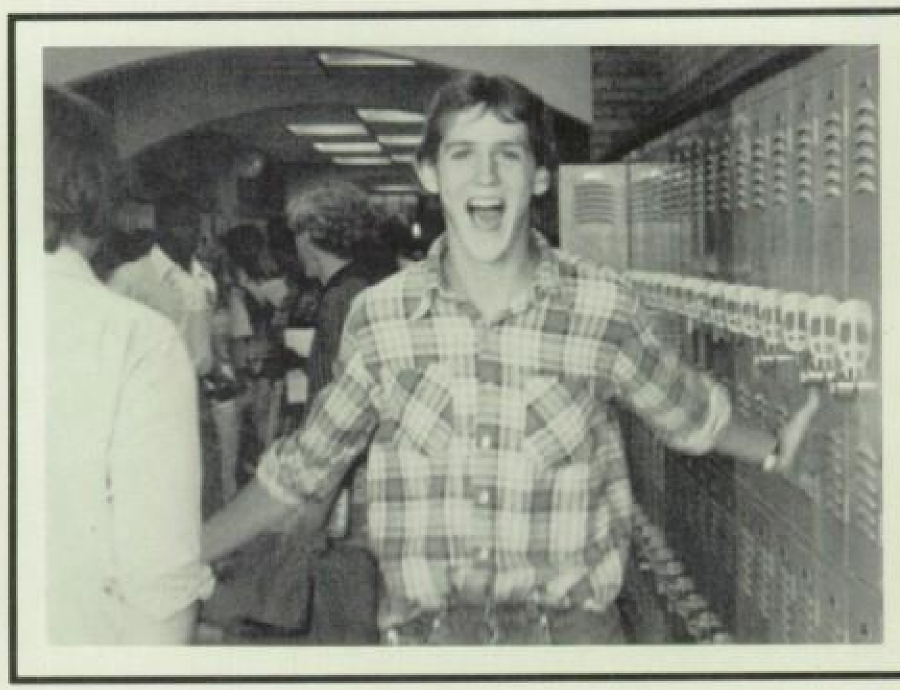

All of these attractions helped to make Eastern Wayne High "one of the greatest shows on earth."

THE BEGINNING.....

Warrior Territory was once again invaded by the faces and personalities of the better citizens of Wayne County. As the buses unloaded, we viewed various expressions which reflected the anxiety of the upcoming year.

During the first few weeks, we concentrated on getting to know our peers and changing our schedules so that they would satisfy our own requirements.

As the year progressed, we saw these different individuals involved in various activities that awarded them the blue ribbon which stated "best of the show."

AND NOW PRESENTING.....

THE MIGHTY WARRIORS.....

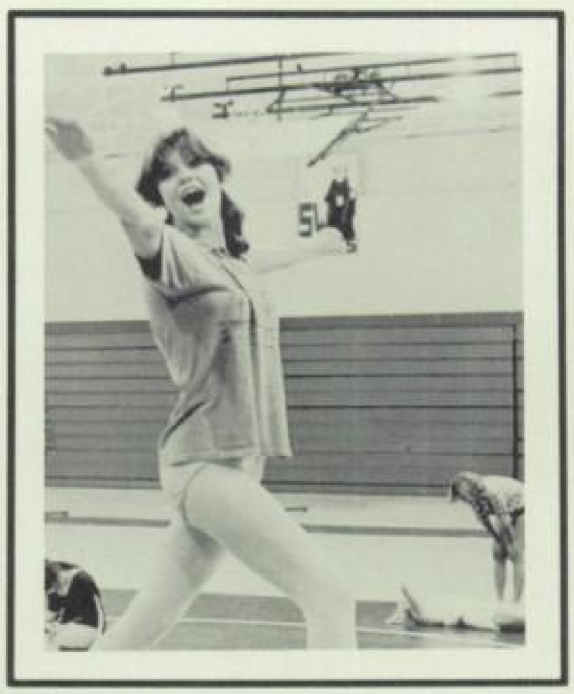

The Warriors have shown their athletic abilities in the past; however, the 1978-79 season erupted as the best yet because of the stunning performances and outstanding sportsmanship shown throughout the year.

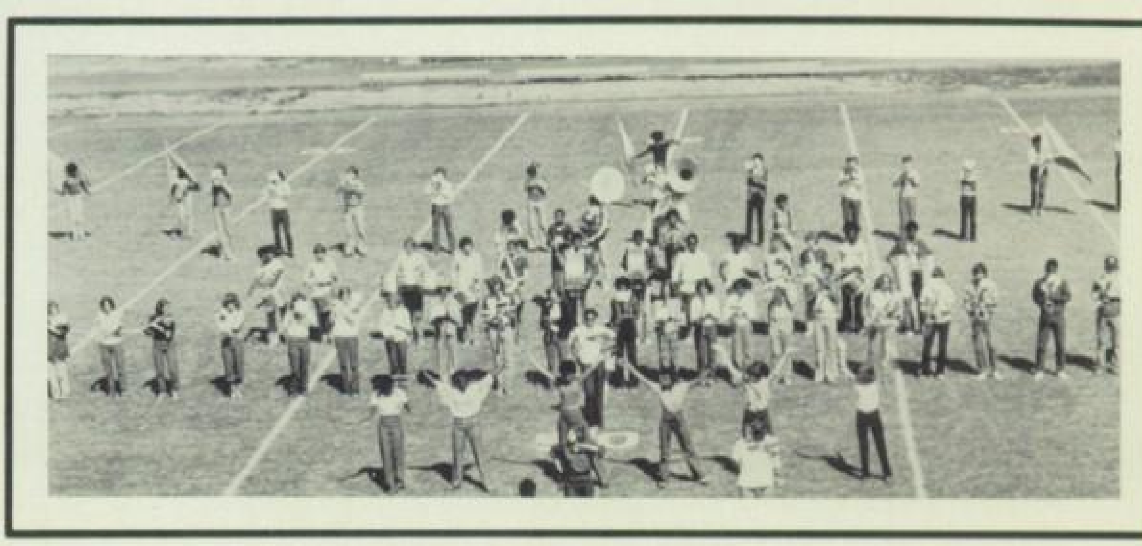

With school pride and spirit backing them, our fellow classmates managed to score a winning season.

Whenever we saw those blue and gold uniforms, no matter where we were, we knew to expect the "greatest performance of all."

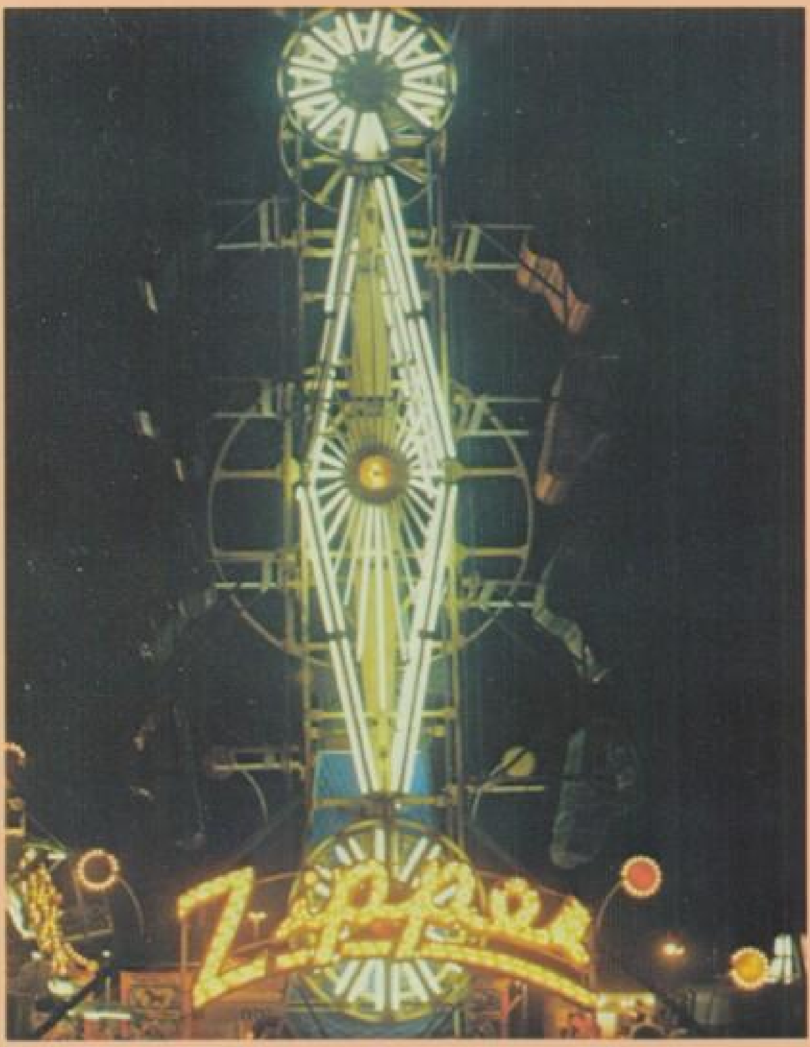

A NIGHT OUT.....

After a long, antagonizing day at school, we all looked forward to the extracurricular activities which enhanced our daily routines.

With moderate admission fees, and an assortment of candy, popcorn, and drinks for sale, the sponsoring clubs were successful in raising funds from various activities.

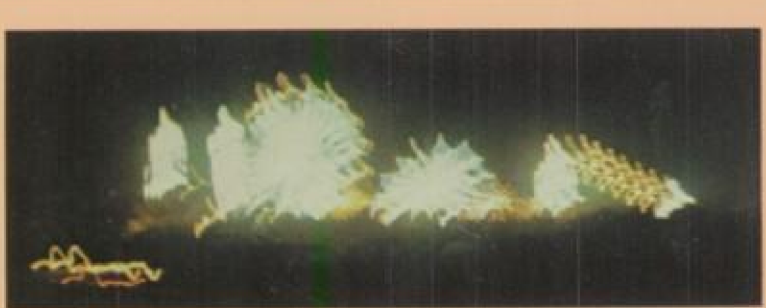

Other than the school-sponsored activities, we also enjoyed the entertainment offered by our surrounding community. These varied from movies to church dances, from which we tried to drown our worries about the up-coming day.

These night time activities proved to be the "starring attractions of our school year."

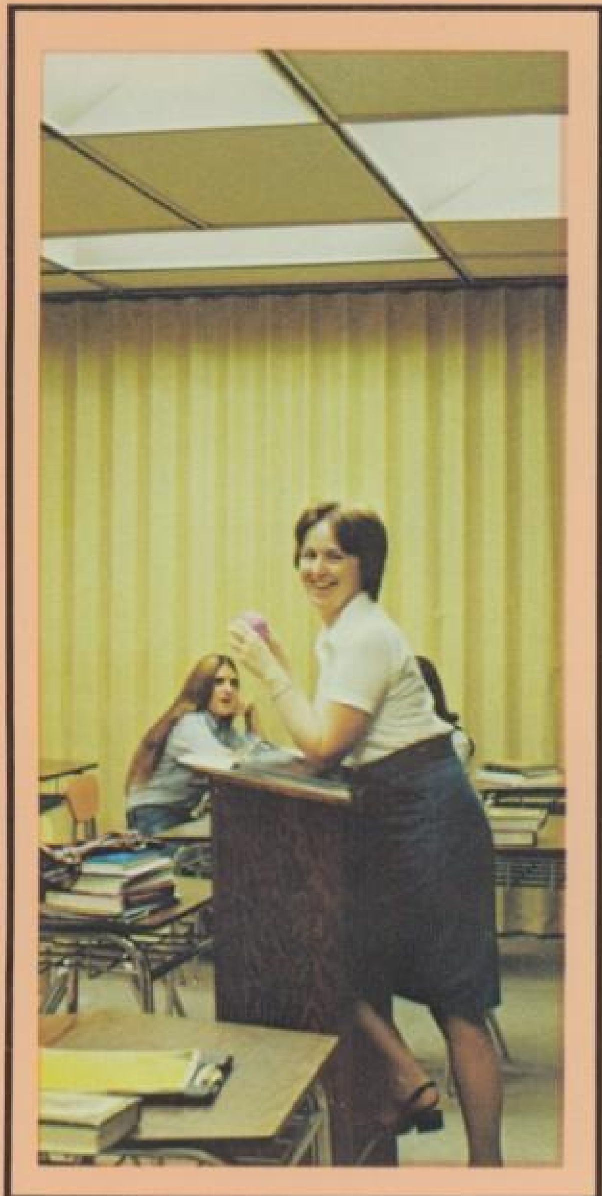

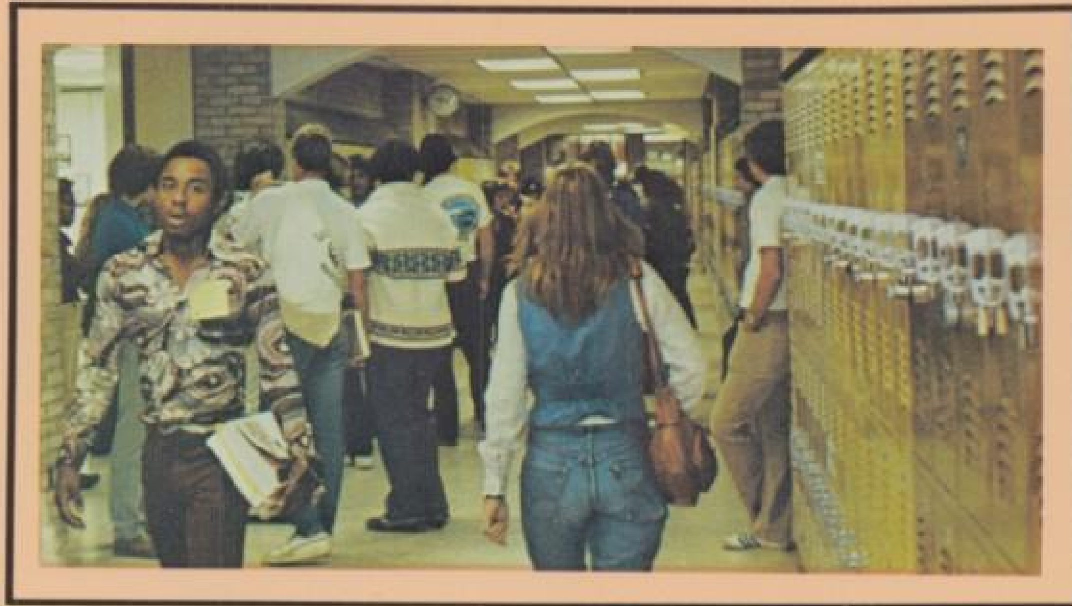

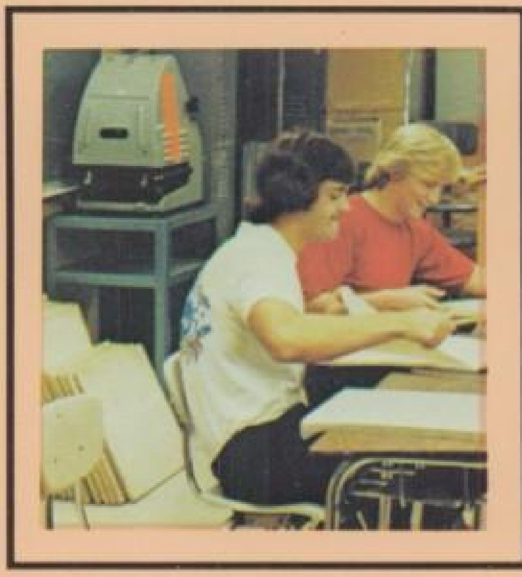

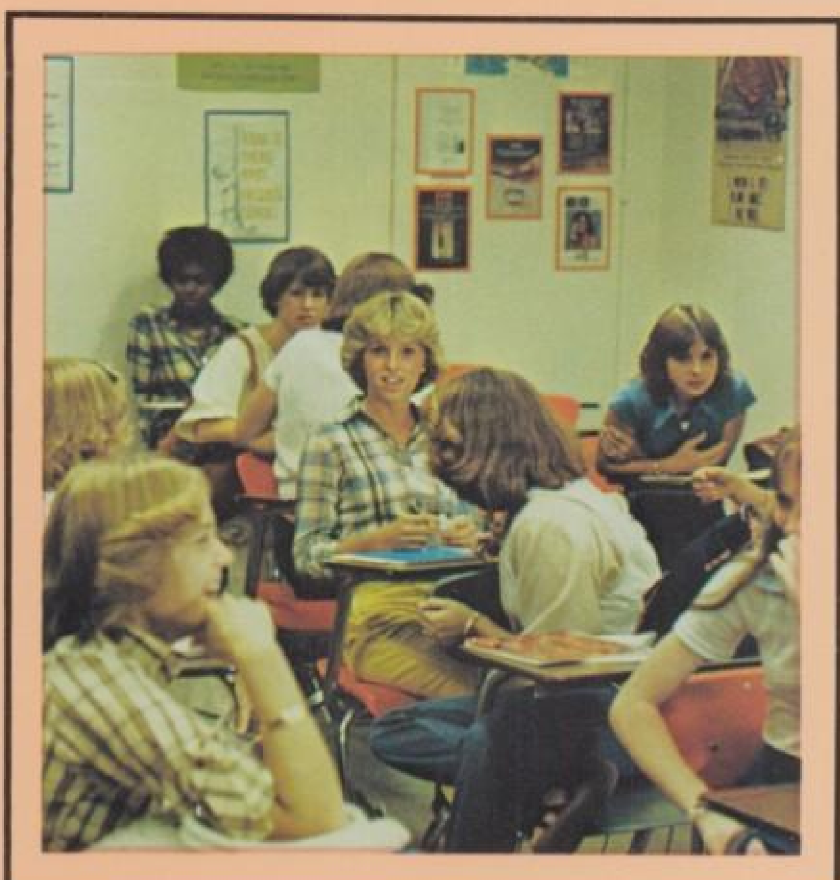

While the nocturnal activities were always accepted, the habitual schedule of classes was not.

The daily hum-drum of pushing your way through crowded halls to get to your locker was devastating. Newcomers found it difficult trying to get to classes before that final bell rang.

While we occasionally saw students who seemed to be enjoying their classes, we saw long faces in other rooms. Even Seniors had to spend long, drawn-out hours in classes.

But, all in all, the Eastern Wayne Warriors managed to survive, always dreaming of that year when they would be the "center ring of the circus."

A DAY IN.....

When that final bell rang on Friday afternoon, the drudging feet suddenly stormed out of the building looking forward to that, hopefully, never-ending weekend.

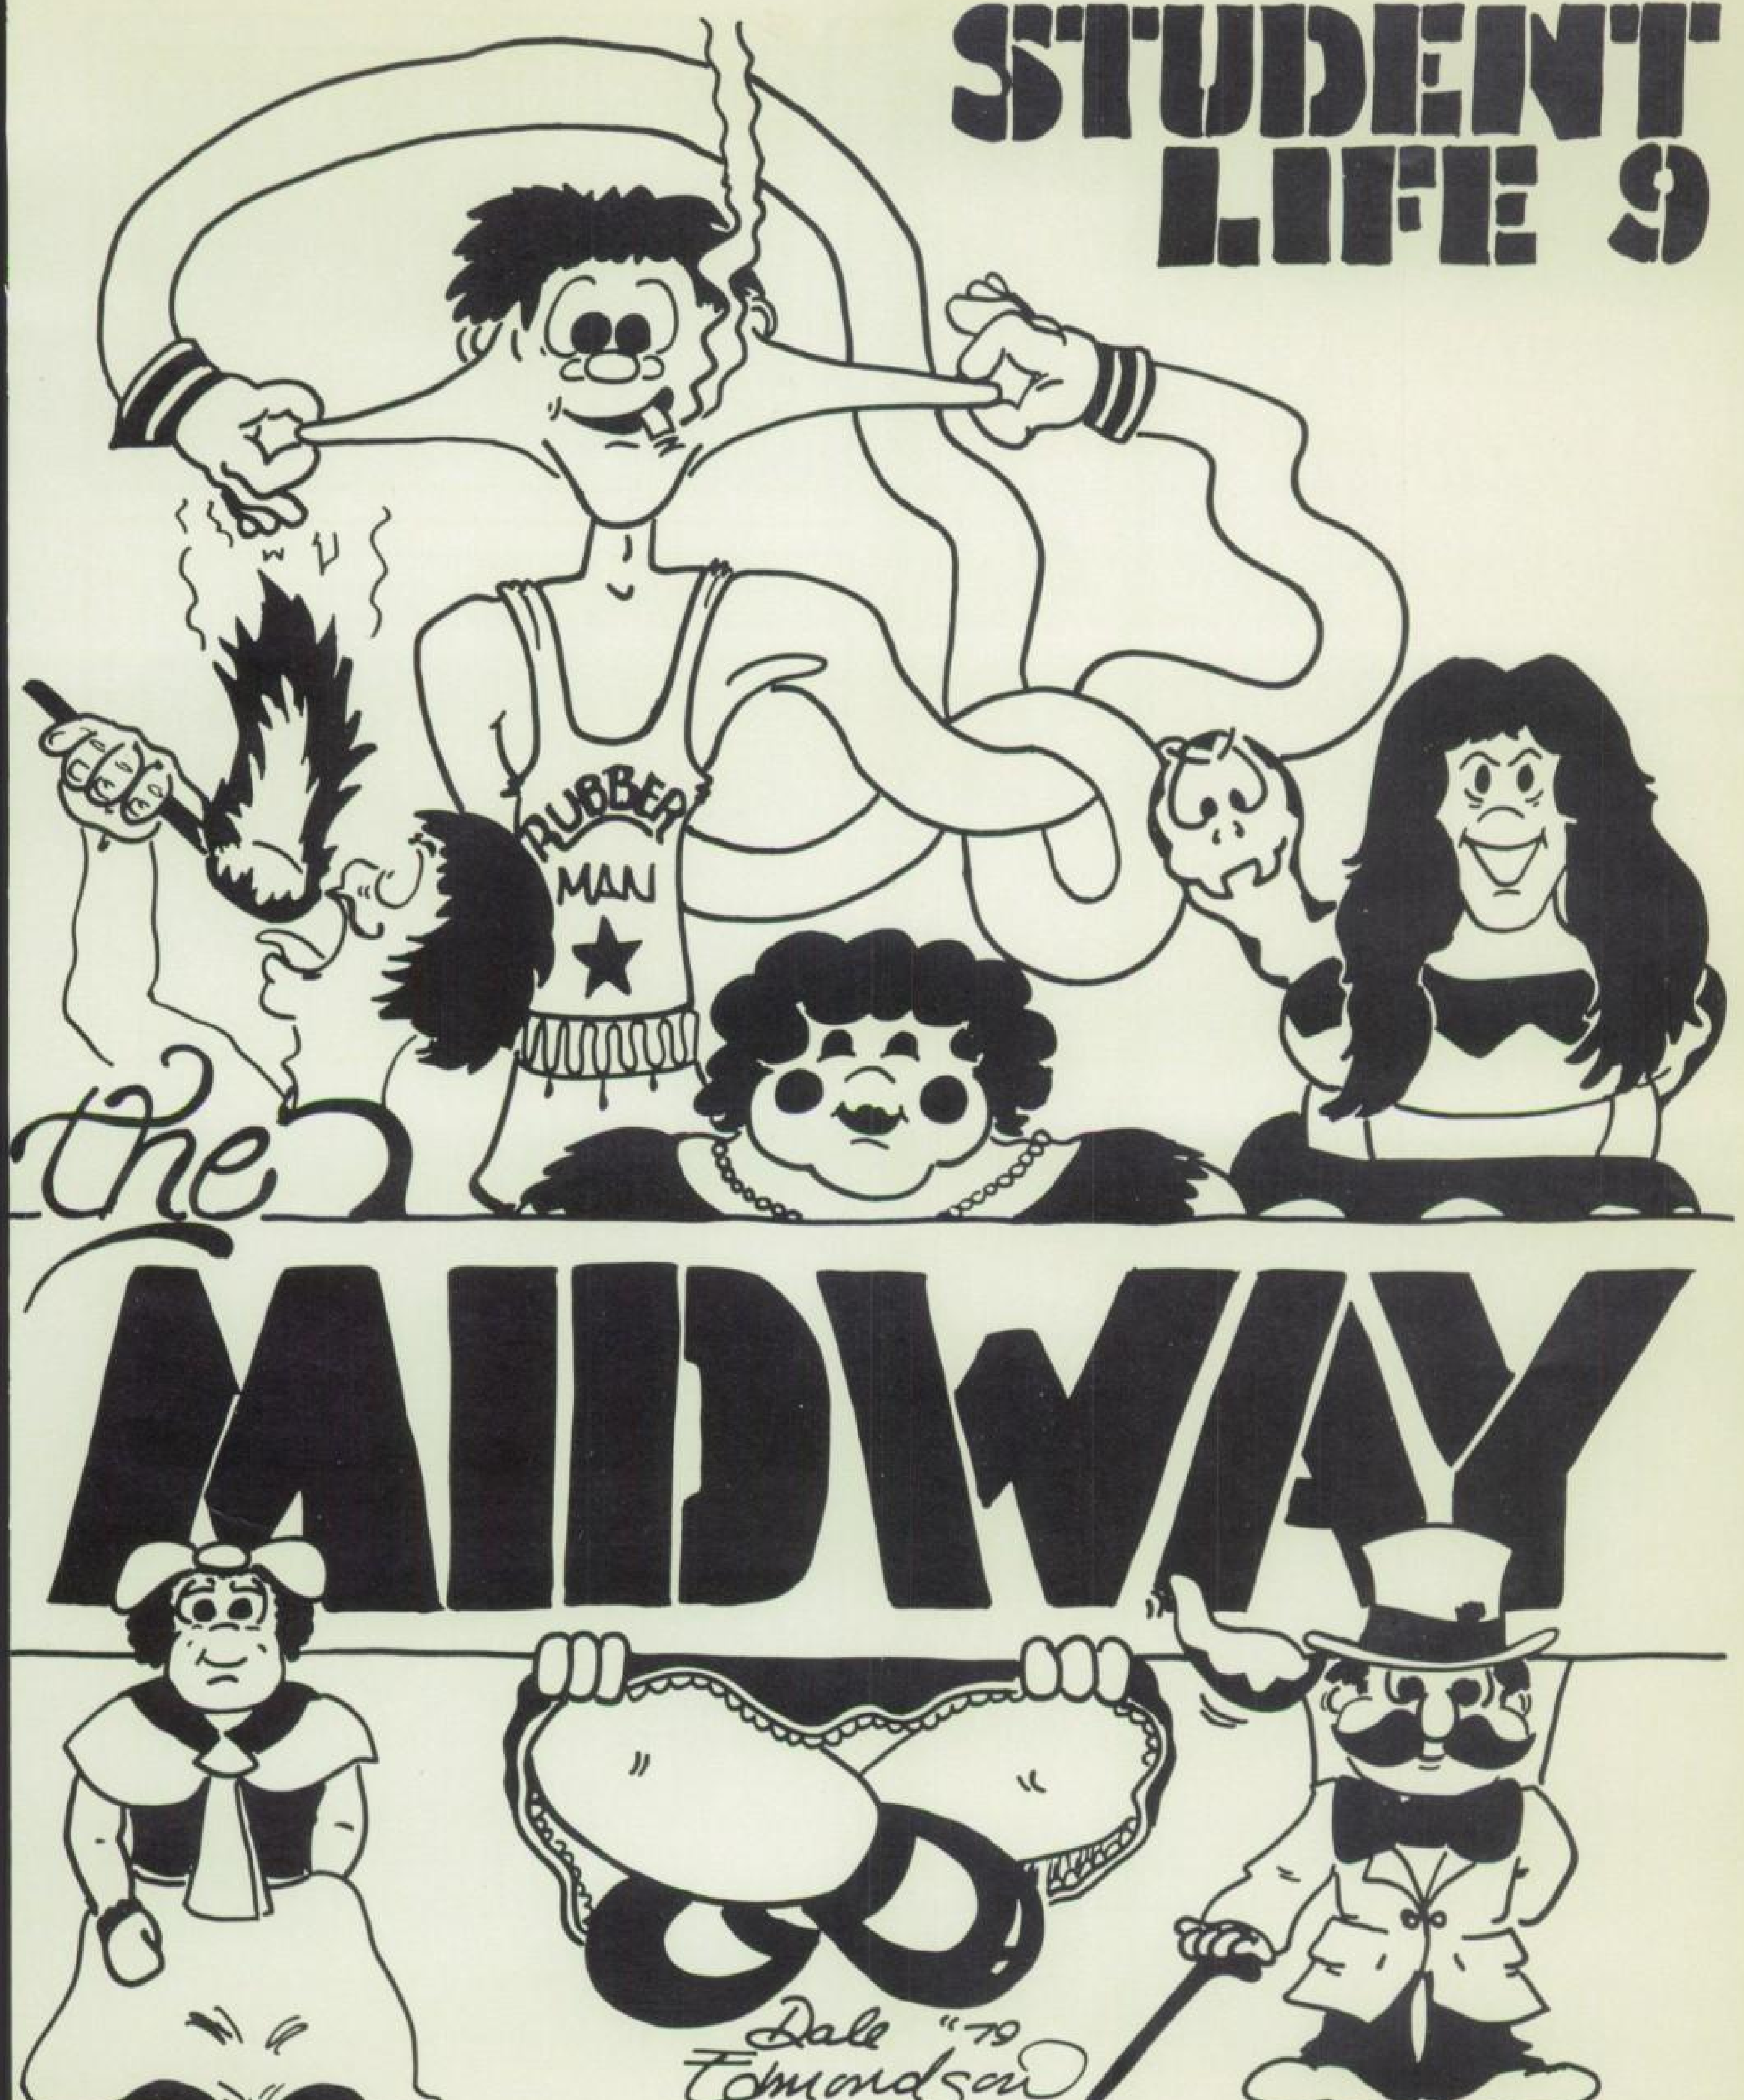

While most of us were trying to relive our summer with a last fling to the beach, quite a few of us were trying to rush winter by going to the mountains to ski or just view the beautiful scenery.

Then, there were some of us who could not afford to go out of town after buying all those school supplies, so we hung around at the local pizza place and then spent the rest of the night at the arcade.

But there was always that recurring thought that, come Monday morning, we would once again be caught up in the "circus of events that we call school."

WEEKENDS FREE.....

STUDENT LIFE 9

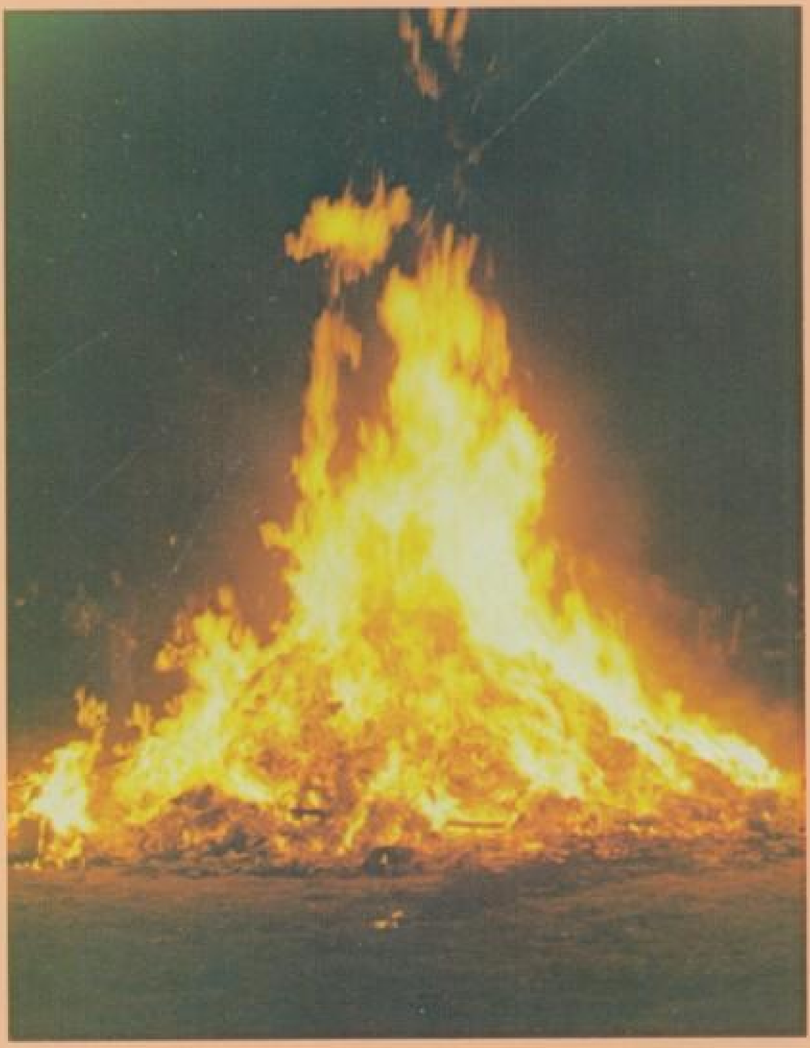

COME ONE COME ALL TO THE GREATEST WARRIOR ACTS OF ALL.......

"We've got that spirit - we're hot and we can't be stopped!" Enthusiasm spread through the halls like a fever during Spirit Week, October 9-14.

Homecoming brought festivities and gaiety into the bloodstream of Eastern Wayne. Jumping into overalls, students made Farmer's Day as exciting as a hayride in the country. Monday night, the bonfire warmed the down home mood of the backwoods day into a mellow Southern night.

Licking on lollipops and clinging to stuffed animals, old timers were reminiscent of days gone by on Little Kids' Day.

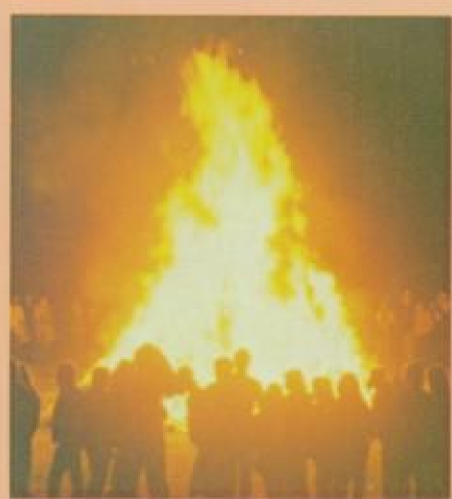

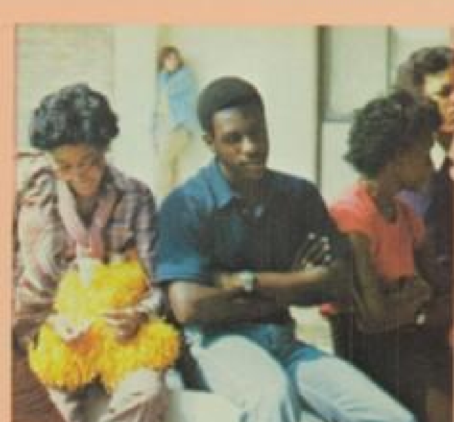

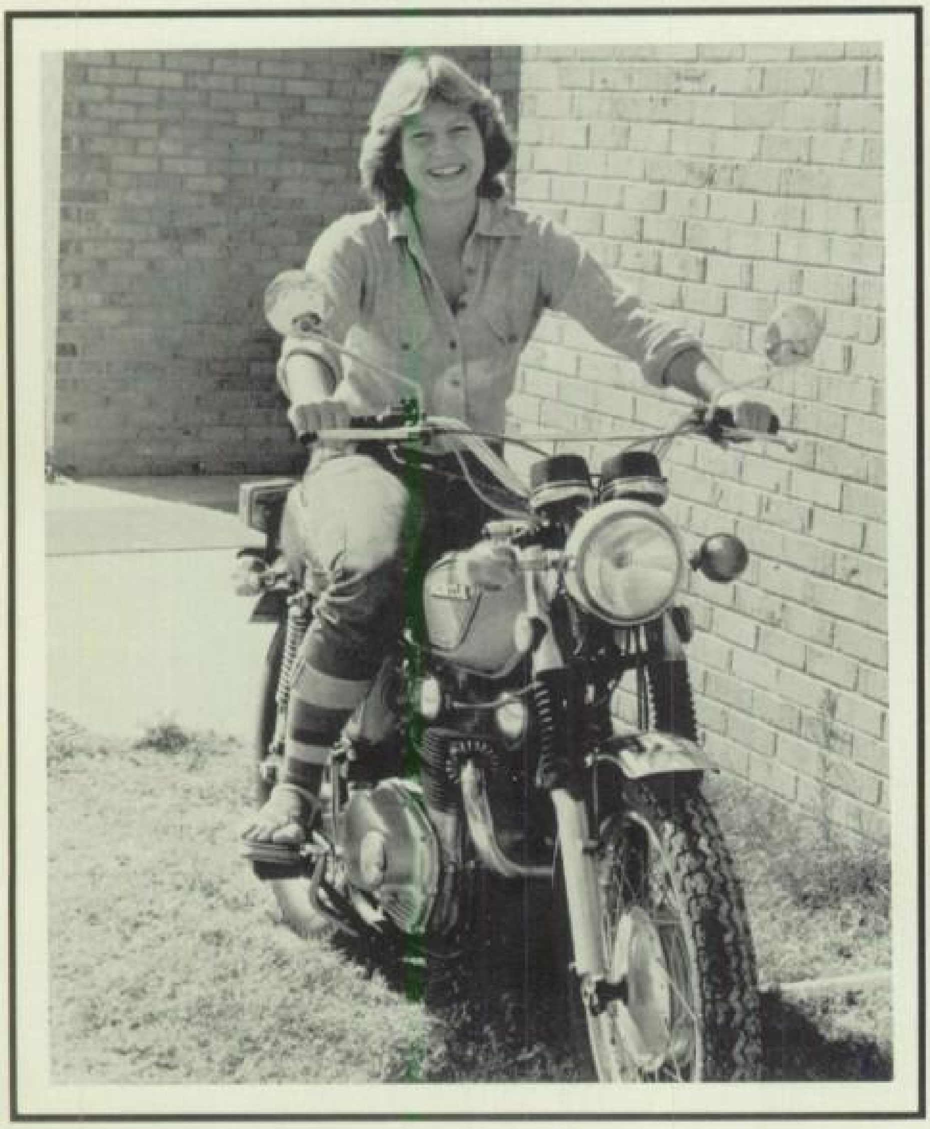

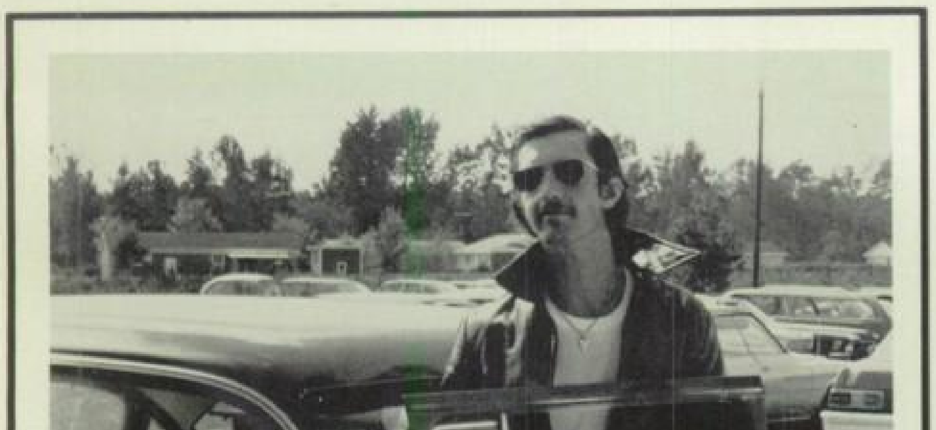

Guys with greased hair and leather jackets, and gals with ponytails and bobby socks could be seen hopping into Eastern Wayne on Wednesday of Spirit Week.

Everybody was getting into the action and spirit was high. Even teachers could be seen dressed like they did in the "good old days!"

Practicing for the Sock Hop was in the thoughts of most of those teeny boppers and they were dancing in the halls! Everyone agreed that the 70's are great, but the 50's - wow! - that's . . .

. . . . . THE WAY IT WAS

BLUE AND GOLD.....

When "Warrior Day" finally arrived, the majority of the student body demonstrated its school spirit by wearing anything from gold t-shirts and blue jeans to leather boots and headband.

The long awaited pep rally "got off" to a roaring start after the spirited classes stomped into the gym. The Majorettes, Warriorettes, and Band demonstrated traditional routines and the cheerleaders performed a comical skit. The announcement of the winning class hall decorations was the climax of the 1978 Spirit Week Pep Rally.

The Seniors of 1979 will always remember their last HOMECOMING as the best because of the enriching performances of Eastern Wayne's award-winning spirit.

As Spirit Week came to an end, fifteen Eastern Wayne High School girls were getting closer to becoming "a queen."

HOMECOMING HOPEFULS

A DREAM COME TRUE...

Many of us do not realize it, but Eastern Wayne has a celebrity in its midst. She has done what every girl dreams of doing - winning a beauty pageant.

As Miss Goldsboro 1978, Miss Sharon Wilson competed in the Miss North Carolina Pageant. Even though she did not win, she represented Goldsboro and the surrounding area well.

A dream came true for another member of Warrior Country. Miss Lisa Creech was chosen as Homecoming Queen on October 13. Escorted by Steve Bass, Miss Creech glowed radiantly on that spirited night.

Even though Homecoming Queen is a small title, Lisa could become our next Miss Goldsboro - perhaps - Miss North Carolina, or even Miss America!

Homecoming Queen - Lisa Creech

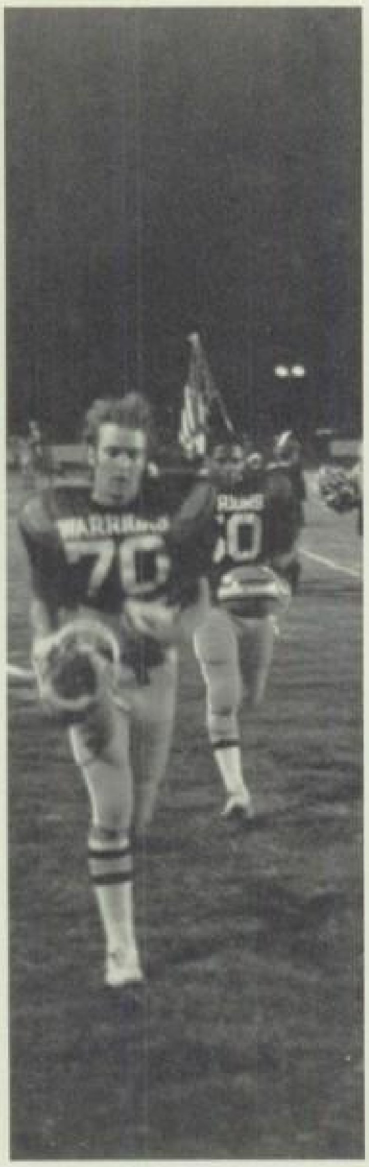

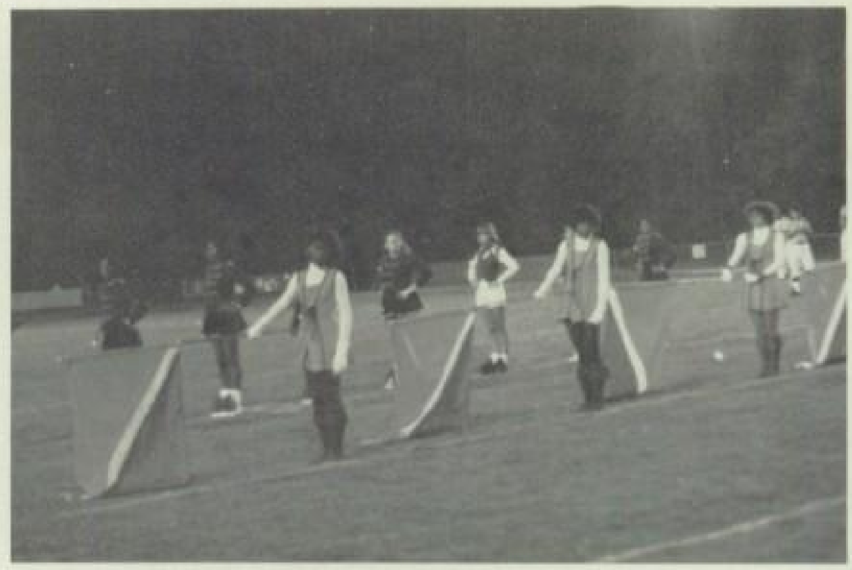

Miss Goldsboro 1978 - Sharon Wilson

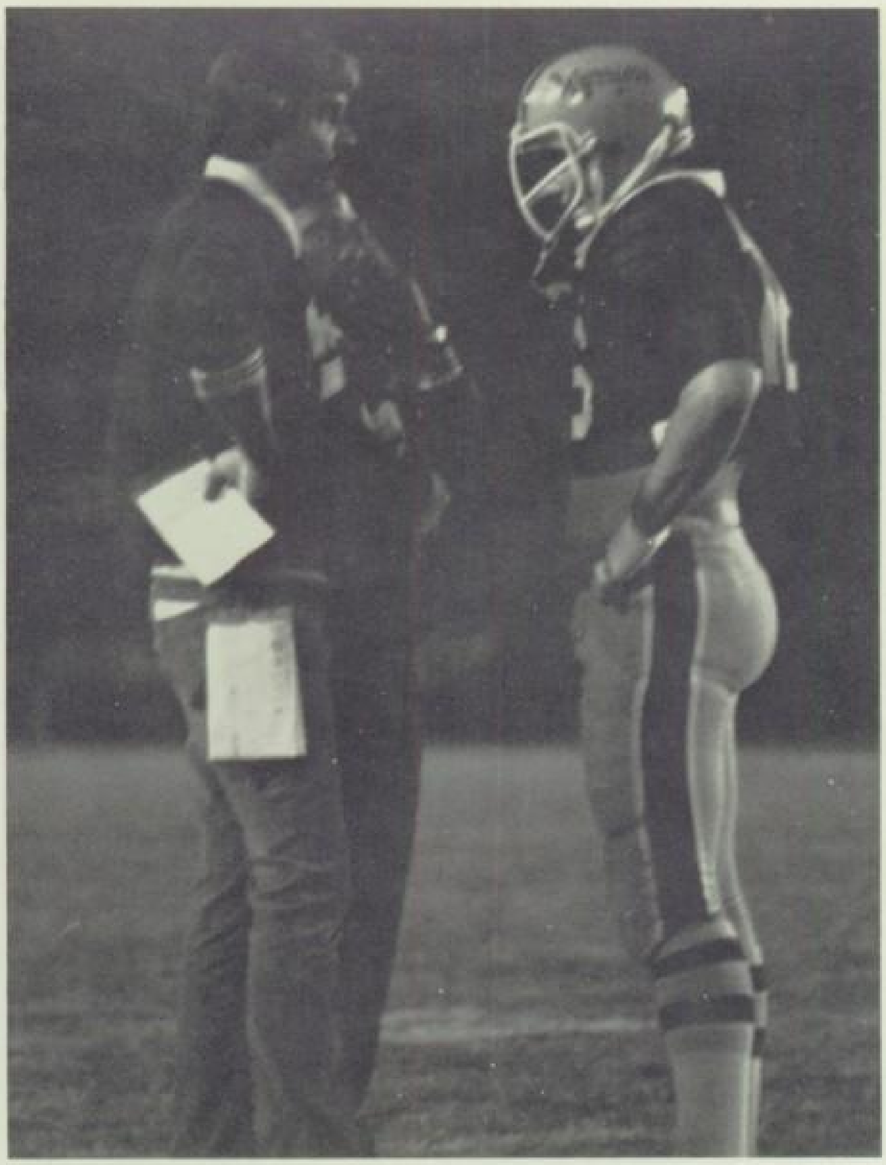

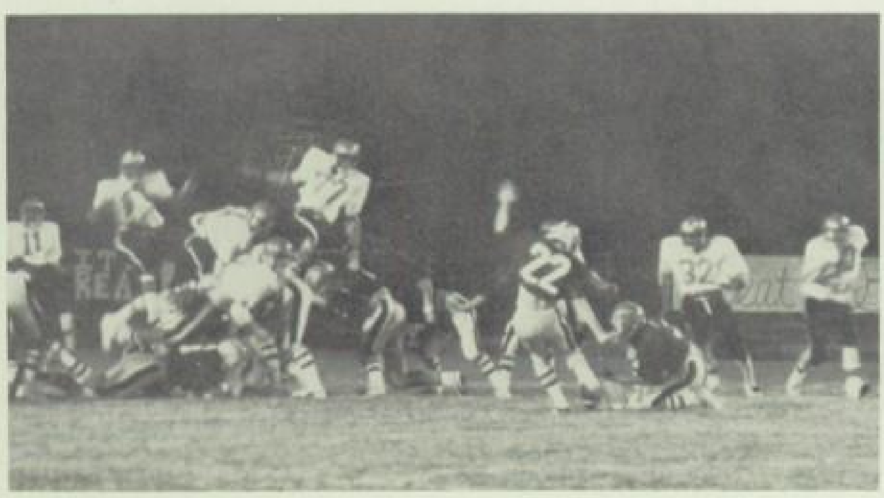

Our spirits were at an all-time high on the night of the Homecoming game. Having already won 5 out of 6 games, we were all looking forward to this very important event.

With the Warriorettes and Cheerleaders leading them on, the Warriors stampeded onto the field, ready to go on the warpath to overcome any obstacle that would prevent them from taking first place.

Adorned with pins and stickers galore, we all watched as we steadily gained points against New Bern indicating that we had scored . . .

There are thirty-four girls in our school who, during the day, help elementary and junior high students in their basic skills of arithmetic, spelling, and reading. These girls are known as VIP's or students in the Vocational Instructional Program. OUR ANNUAL COMMUNITY EXHIBITION. . .

The Community Crafts Fair was held on October 21 and 22. This favorite affair of the fall season hosted such attractions as homemade peanut brittle, leather keychains and purses stamped with initials or zodiac signs, articles made by the student body, and entertainment. As always, this year's Crafts Fair was an outstanding success.

Early in the year, the first money-making project was sponsored by the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders. In order to buy new uniforms, they sold old-fashion candy for a dime per stick.

Not to be out done, the Varsity Cheerleaders peddled suckers, ballons, and a variety of pins and stickers throughout Spirit Week.

In order that the Publications Staff produce an annual, magazine, and newspaper, it, too, had to sponsor fund-raising events such as dances, selling candy, and a carwash. The selling of over three thousand dollars worth of ads put the Publication Staff into the lead as . . .

FUTURE STARS.....

During the school year, we were gathered into the gym for a variety of assemblies. One of these featured a group, the North Carolina Dance Theater, that delighted all of us with the artistic abilities of their dancers.

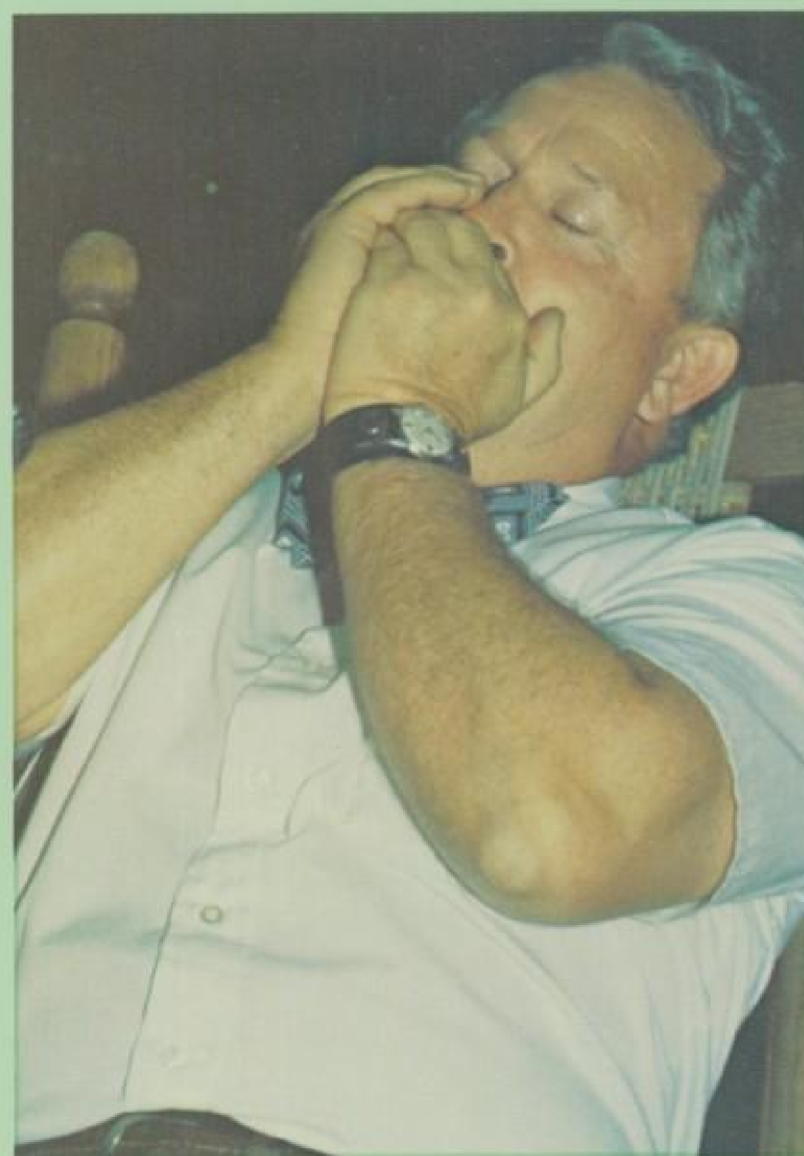

The show was divided into two segments. The first consisted of classical ballet and the second yielded to the contemporary form of dance.

Even though this dance team was talented, the students at Eastern Wayne are, too. Last year's talent show proved that there is talent in Warrior Territory.

Featured artists were Mrs. P. Hester and Mr. W. Godwin singing a duet, Miss M. Warren on the piano, Mr. J. Carr on the harmonica, and a solo by Mrs. L. Siler. Student talent consisted of a guitarist, HOSA's skit, Susan Horner playing the piano, and Jack Sasser and Delphine Edwards dancing to disco music. The show presented talent that only spirited Warriors can have.

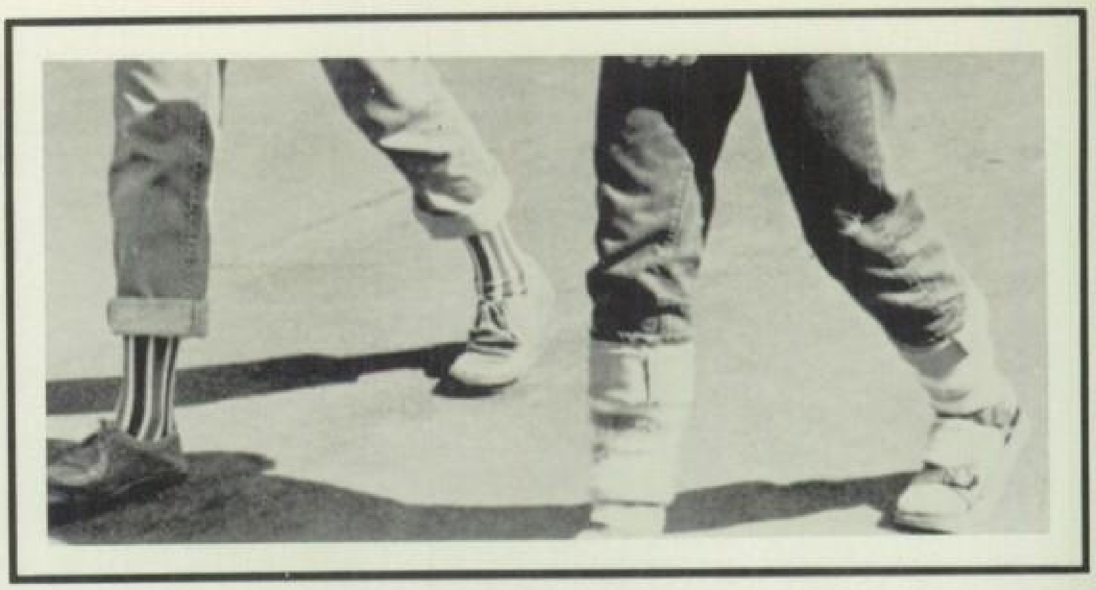

Have you ever seen any of these students walking around Eastern Wayne? Can you GUESS WHOSE feet these are? Does that hairstyle look familiar? The people featured on these pages are very unusual! They are faceless, shoeless, and even headless! See if you can GUESS WHO these students are by the portions given.

. . . GUESS WHO

POWDERING OUR WAY THROUGH . . .

Whoever said that football was a man's game? Wouldn't it be nice, for once, to see girls playing football and guys doing the cheerleading?

Well, that's just what we at EWHS saw when the Math Club sponsored the annual Powder Puff football game last fall.

The Seniors once again challenged the Juniors to an exciting game of football. Coached by Vince Smith, Ferrante Grantham, Dan Herlihy, Mike Large, Dale Edmondson, Greg Lee, and Dean Wolford, the girls learned the basics of football strategy.

The coaching "paid off" because the game ended with a score of Juniors 24 and Seniors 24.

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to travel to the other end of the rainbow? Students at Eastern Wayne should have an idea because of a spectacular performance of The Wizard of Oz.

With a cast and crew of more than sixty well-rehearsed people, the production was a success, as shown by a standing ovation received from the entire Eastern Wayne student body.

While the lion captured the hearts of the audience with his humor and cowardness, Dorothy, the Scarecrow, and the Tin Man fascinated the audience with their singing, acting, and dancing abilities. Also, among the more favored characters were the Wicked Witch and the Sorceress of the North.

As the play concluded, Dorothy, as well as the audience, came back to reality and the entire cast sang a finale of "Somewhere Over the Rainbow", which indeed proved that even the greatest of dreams can come true.

. . . DRAMA AT ITS BEST

LITERATURE AT ITS BEST

How do you tame a shrew? Selected Sophomore and Senior English classes viewed Advanced Theatre's version of Shakespeare's comedy, The Taming of The Shrew, in March.

The shrew, Katherine (portrayed by Karen Waters), was woed by Petruchio (Keith Chadwick) to the delight of Kate's father, Baptista (John Hardesty). "All's fair in love and war," declared Lucentio (Mark Spencer) as he competed with Hortensio (McKenzie Best) for the lovely Bianca (Tammy Clifton). The winner of Bianca's hand was Cambio (Joe Absher). Hortensio finally won the widow (Devina Coston). Comic relief was provided by Grumio (Jack Sasser), Tranio (Alfred Fitch), and Biondella (Allen Nichols). Other characters were Phyllis Whitley, Kathy Kirby, and Jackie Webb as maids and Michael McCrae as attendant. Behind the scenes were Stage Manager Clark Rogers, Assistant Director Julie Stava, Lighting Director Scott Williamson, Prop girl Darlene Girley, and Grips Guy Webb and David Fairl, with Dan Lewis and Greg Todaro alternate.

A tremendous help with the performance was Third Century Artist, Ron Dortch, of community theatre fame. His assistance as Shakespearian advisor to Director Charlotte Darwin was greatly appreciated by the entire cast.

On February 2, The American Collage, a dramatized reading by the Umbrella Players, was presented to the Eastern Wayne High School student body. It was a collection of passages and scenes from American Literature. Some of the authors included were E. Hemingway, M. Twain, J. Steinbeck, and E. O'Neil.

The Eastern Wayne Marching Band participated in the O'Berry and Goldsboro Christmas Parades, the Goldsboro Veteran's Day Parade, and the Seymour Johnson Fire Prevention Week Parade. The band's unique sound made it not only the favorite of the crowd but awarded it, for the second consecutive year, the privilege of announcing the arrival of Santa Claus to the Goldsboro area.

Accompanying the band were the twirling Majorettes, the high-stepping Warriorettes, and the precisioned Flag Girls. Our award-winning Varsity Cheerleaders displayed their spirit, performing routines to the band's music.

The band students, as well as director, Angelo Holman, Jr., are to be commended for their community involvement and representation of Eastern Wayne.

Eastern Wayne's Football Team worked hard this year to bring the Warriors their number one position. The 1978-1979 season is memorable, not only because of the many victories, but also because of the news that nine members of the Warrior team were voted All-Conference players. These nine young men, as well as those who received Honorable Mentions, played an outstanding season and deserve a very special tribute.

AND THE WINNER IS . . .

Miss Eastern Wayne 1979 was selected from fourteen young ladies, who for five months put in overtime learning dance steps for the opening number and practicing talent for competition.

In addition, each girl had to master the art of walking gracefully down a runway and completing a series of turns required for judging. Practicing for the pageant was not easy, but every girl put forth her utmost effort.

The fourteen girls competing were as follows: Janice Bowman, Denise Dudley, Bonnie Faircloth, Ann Hamm, Lori Hatchell, Darlene Hendrix, Hope Hill, Donna Holmes, Teresa Jones, Mary McFarlin, Gisella Olivo, Shelli Taylor, Gina Thornton, and Karen Waters.

Sharon Wilson, having had much experience with beauty pageants, was director and choreographer for the pageant.

Due to publication deadlines, the outcome of the pageant will be published in Warrior XI.

The Eastern Wayne Senior High Publication Staff began its work on August 27, 1978. The staff attended a yearbook workshop conducted by Morris Kenig, Key's Publishing Company Vice-President in charge of Yearbooks, left, and Jim Darwin, school representative to Key's below. Each staff member was taught the basic mechanics of yearbook production. Creative suggestions for the improvement of last year's yearbook were suggested.

This year, the Publication Staff raised over three thousand dollars by selling ads and soliciting patrons. This total amount was the largest any staff at Eastern Wayne has ever raised; but, it was far from the necessary amount needed for the publishing of Warrior X. To fulfill the needed amount, the staff sold annuals, booster pictures, grab bags, and candy. These money-making projects helped to meet the fourteen thousand dollar cost of the 1979 Warrior.

The literary magazine, genesis, contains student poetry, short stories, news articles, and puzzles. Published at the Wayne County Diagnostic Center, genesis is a fine example of high school students' capabilities.

Warrior Country, the Eastern Wayne newspaper, is also produced at the Diagnostic Center. Warrior Country is also an excellent example of student writing, but of a different nature. The newspaper consists of news reporting, sports, comics, puzzles, and editorials. Other students may contribute by writing letters to the editor.

The 1979 Staff has acquired many new skills. This year, the staff has attempted to use different types of lens, photography, and artwork, with a continuity of design in layout. The 1979 Publication Staff hopes that the '78-'79 publications meet its peers desires and expectations.

Promoting an awareness of foreign cultures is the main objective of the Eastern Wayne High Language Club. One hundred and three members under the advisement of Mrs. A. Brinson sponsored many fund-raising activities throughout the 1978-79 school year.

These efforts produced a scholarship, which was given to a senior club member, who throughout his or her sophomore, junior, and senior years showed great proficiency in a language other than his or her native tongue. A learning and pleasurable experience was afforded as the club members treated themselves to many exotic foreign dishes at the annual International Banquet held in April.

New members suffer through initiation.

Of all the clubs at Eastern Wayne, the Beta Club is the only one which requires special qualifications, one of which is academic ability.

In order to qualify academically, a person must have a sophomore yearly average of 90. If the requirement is not met, then he may try again, with his junior yearly average.

Upon being selected, each member is asked to participate in an initiation, planned by the old members, and a special induction ceremony. Throughout his membership, each person must maintain an 88 average in order to meet eligibility requirements.

Although academic achievement is necessary, qualities such as worthy character, good mentality, and commendable attitude are not overlooked. Each and every member should have pride in the fact that he qualified for the Beta Club.

The Beta Club gave a Christmas party at Westhaven.

The club emphasizes the youth role in home economics, personal growth, and family life.

Distributing baskets of food for the needy on Thanksgiving, attending the Future Homemakers of America Rally and the State Convention, and participating in the Goldsboro Christmas Parade kept the Future Homemakers of America busy during the 1978-79 school year.

Sponsored by Mrs. B. Artis and led by officers, Tracy Dees-President, Cindy Kittrell-Vice-President, Terri McLaughlin-Secretary, and Angie Hooks-Treasurer, the Club strives to become one of the most outstanding groups on campus.

Providing additional opportunities for secondary students in business and office education for the development of supportive competencies and promotion of civic and personal responsibility is the goal of the Eastern Wayne High Future Business Leaders of America. The club sponsored the annual Tom-Wat Sales which provided an Empty Stocking Fund donation, which helps needy children, and the making of fruit baskets for elderly persons at local rest homes. Funds also provided the opportunity for several members to attend and compete in the State Leadership Conference held at Winston-Salem in April. An installation ceremony for 1979-80 officers, and an awards assembly for outstanding leadership was held in May.

The Eastern Wayne Senior High Chorus has many accomplishments to its credit. November brought special recognition, for the Warriors received an invitation to perform at the North Carolina Music Education Conference in Winston Salem. Eastern Wayne cherishes this recognition since it is the only school in Eastern North Carolina to have received such an honor.

During March competition at the District Festival in Tarboro, the Chorus received, as it has in the past, a rate of "superior."

The Chorus also traveled to Henderson, N. C. to perform for the Howard University Alumni Chapter Reunion.

Accompanying the Chorus during performances, was the EW Ensemble composed of selected and experienced EW Band members.

Students who possess a sincere desire to sing and a willingness to be taught the proper art of vocal production are welcome to become members of the "Mighty Singing Warriors."

Angelo Holman, Jr., Director

The Eastern Wayne High Marching and Concert Band has added excitement to school pep rallies and halftime events for many ballgames throughout the year. The band's outstanding music ability has promoted school spirit within the student body. The Marching Band represents the school well in parades and the Concert Band gives magnificent concert performances open to the public. A small Ensemble, composed of selected band members, accompanies the Chorus during performances. Without the dedication of the Band Director, Angelo Holman, Jr. these musical Warriors would not be Number 1.

The 78-79 football season was the best ever for Eastern Wayne. A season of firsts, the Warriors had their best record ever of 9 and 1 with the only loss coming early in the season. In addition, the Warriors went undefeated in regular conference play, winning the Mideastern Conference Title. This season marked the first Warrior win over Southern Wayne and Goldsboro, our arch rivals, making this a season to remember. The 78-79 season was the first time in EW's 4-A history that the Warriors reached the play-offs. In the first play-off game, Eastern Wayne averaged its only seasonal loss by defeating the Rocky Mount "Gryphons." The Warriors, however, could not continue the winning streak, losing 14-0 to the Richmond County "Raiders", closing out its chances for the state title.

Although the team was plagued by injuries causing several losses, the Warriors were not out of the competition until the final games. With the experience gained in this season's games, the Junior Varsity hopes to have a better season next year.

The Girl's Tennis Team faced strong competition during the 1978-79 season. As a basically inexperienced team, composed mainly of Sophomores, outstanding abilities were demonstrated on the court making up for the loss of key players from the 1977-78 season. Returning letter-women, Beth Shook and Tonya Uzzell, proved key factors in many Warrior victories.

Under the watchful eye of Coach Karen Asbury, the 1978-79 Girl's Tennis Team has developed into a team of which Eastern Wayne can be proud.

STEPPING LIGHTLY

The newly formed Gymnastics Team consists of high school, junior high, and elementary girls. In its first year, the team competed in the Class III Open Sectional Meet held in Raleigh and gave exhibitions. One member qualified for the Class III state finals held in Charlotte.

In women's gymnastics, there are four areas of compulsory competition: floor exercise, uneven parallel bars, balance beam, and vault. Men compete in any or all of the six areas, but there is no organized men's competition yet in North Carolina.

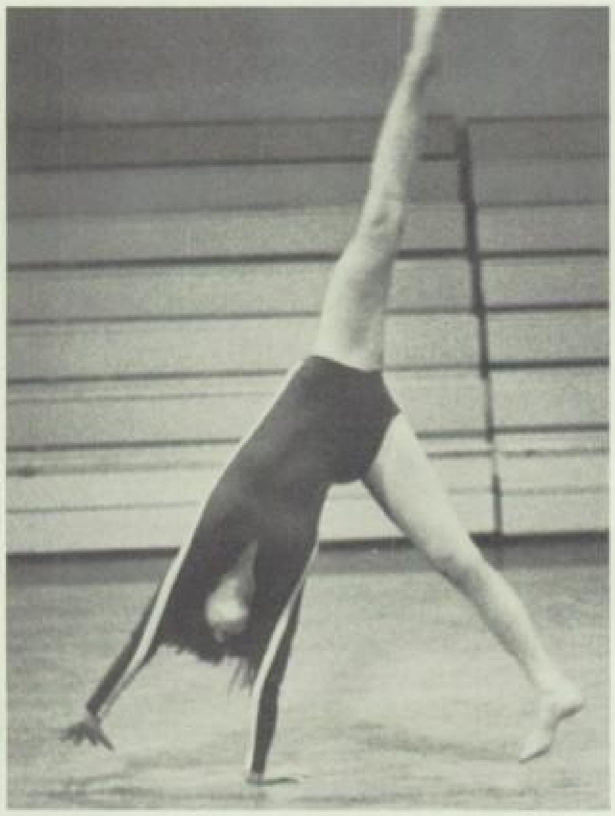

The members of the team from the high school are Lezandra McGinnis-Captain, Allison Burgess, Linda Cherry, and Julie Lane. Others are Kim and Kerrie Moreno, Amy and Kristi Siler, and Sandy Mullins.

Under the outstanding guidance of Coach Jim Bennett the Eastern Wayne High School Wrestling Team's record, eight wins and five losses, was excellent considering the fact that the team has competed for only three seasons. Dedication and skill was displayed by the team not only at seasonal meets but in Conference competition at Jacksonville in February. Although no Eastern Wayne wrestler placed first, Stanley Grant, Bill Gwaltney, and Greg Callis placed second and Bernard Parks, Mark McDowell, Joey Markley, and Mike Brown placed third.

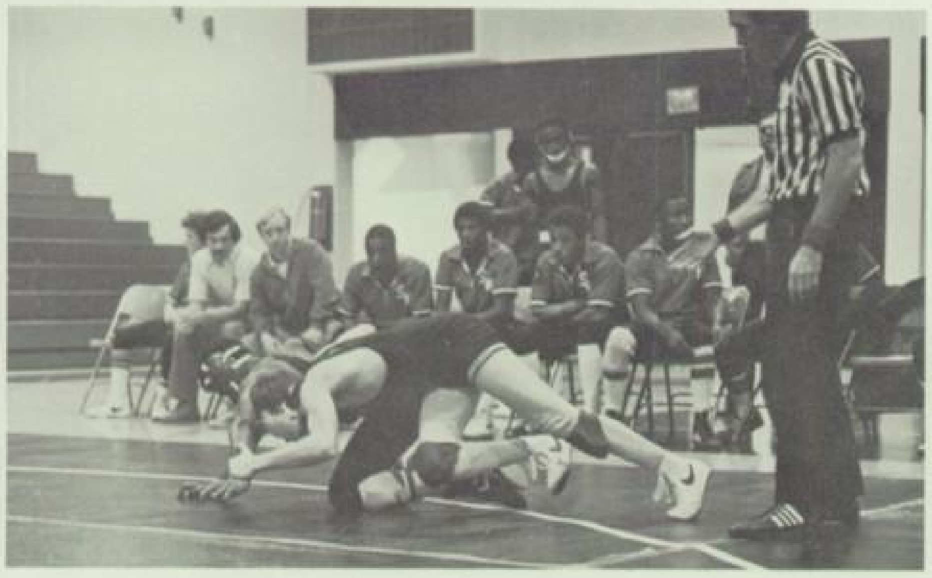

Mat girls for the season were Lisa Robinson, Carol Garrett, Cindy Sides, Carolyn Pearson, and Sharon Harmon. Stats were James Pearson and Daniel Peters.

Returning Lettermen: Rick Doverspike, Pat Kelly, Grant Webber, Mark Grantham.

The golf season began with the usual tryouts and practice in the cold of February. Led by Coach Ed Ezzel, the team tried determiningly to improve its game. Returning lettermen acted as big brothers and helped newer team members improve their game. After weeks of improving strokes, shots, and tee offs, the team began putting its way to victory.

MAKING TRACKS

The Warrior's Track and Field Team began its pre-season training early in the year. Students began shaping up in preparation for the 1978-1979 season. Interested students found a variety of events in which to compete, each requiring a varied schedule of training.

Running events, such as the mile or 440 distance, require stamina and wind. These traits, as well as speed are required for the shorter distances, including the 440 or 220.

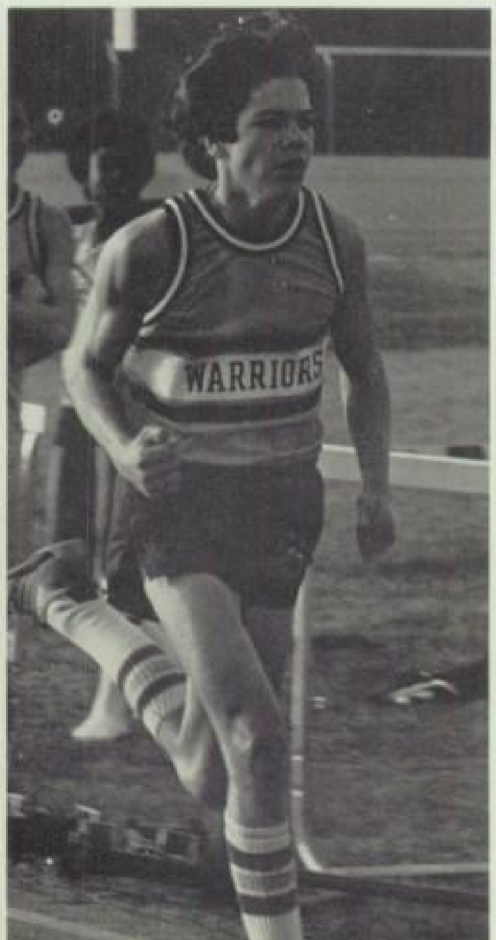

In addition to running, there are events such as shot putting, discus throwing, high-jumping, long-jumping, and pole vaulting. Anyone of these requires determination and strength.

All Eastern Wayne runners, jumpers, and throwers are training and striving for a successful 1978-79 season.

Whether the score was in Eastern Wayne's favor or not, benefits such as confidence and a sense of accomplishment could be seen. Girls Softball has only existed at Eastern Wayne High for a short period of time. Since its beginning, it has come a long way as the girls have worked and won as a team.

Eastern Wayne's Varsity Cheerleaders worked throughout the season to promote school spirit. In order to project expertise in the field of cheerleading, they attended a cheerleading workshop sponsored by the National Cheerleading Association (N.C.A.) on the campus of Campbell College during the month of July. Giving quite a performance, the girls brought home practically every award offered.

Bringing home the first place trophy for the third consecutive year, the cheerleaders also participated in the cheerleading competition, held annually at the Wayne County Fair.

The Varsity Cheerleaders participated in pep rallies, Spirit Week, and several fund-raising projects; but, most importantly they stood behind each Eastern Wayne athletic team.

Eastern Wayne's Junior Varsity Cheerleaders began the season early in the summer, attending a cheerleading workshop sponsored by the Dynamic Cheerleading Association (D.C.A.). While there, the girls won awards for their outstanding performances. During the week of the Wayne County Fair, the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders participated in cheerleading competition, presenting Eastern Wayne with the first place trophy in the Junior Division.

Constantly striving to show enthusiasm, spirit, and support, the JV Cheerleaders participated in pep rallies, candy sales, and other school related events. Above all, they provided outstanding support for all Eastern Wayne athletic teams.

Showing school spirit is just what the Majorettes, Warriorettes, and Flag Girls have done this year. The Student Government Association or SGA is a very active group within the school. Its main objective is to promote an understanding of the operations of government along with providing services to the school and community. Its annual UNICEF drive was successful with funds over $500 being collected. The SGA was responsible for the "Apathy" questionnaire presented to the school in January. Through its sponsorship of the movies shown at EWHS, the SGA raised money to be used in school activities for the benefit of the entire student body.

J. S. King – Principal

Mr. Stacey King has the dedicated leadership that is essential for the success of Eastern Wayne High School. Through his support and guidance, Eastern Wayne is recognized as a school of achievement and excellence.

A. G. Richardson – Vice-Principal

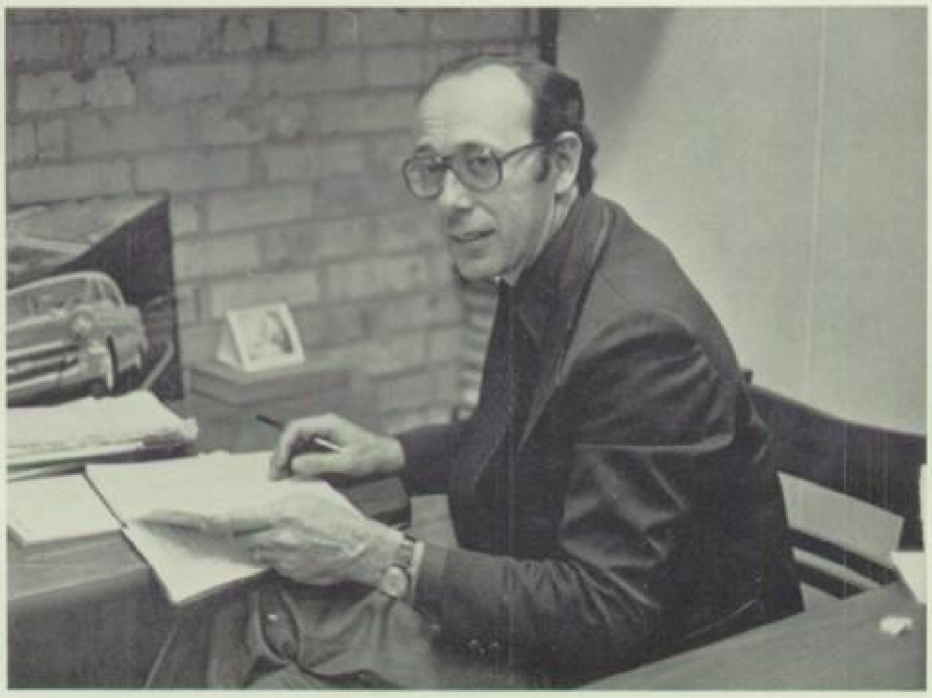

Mr. Richardson is perhaps one of the most beloved members of the staff at Eastern Wayne. He is like a great caretaker with a smile and a kind word for everyone.

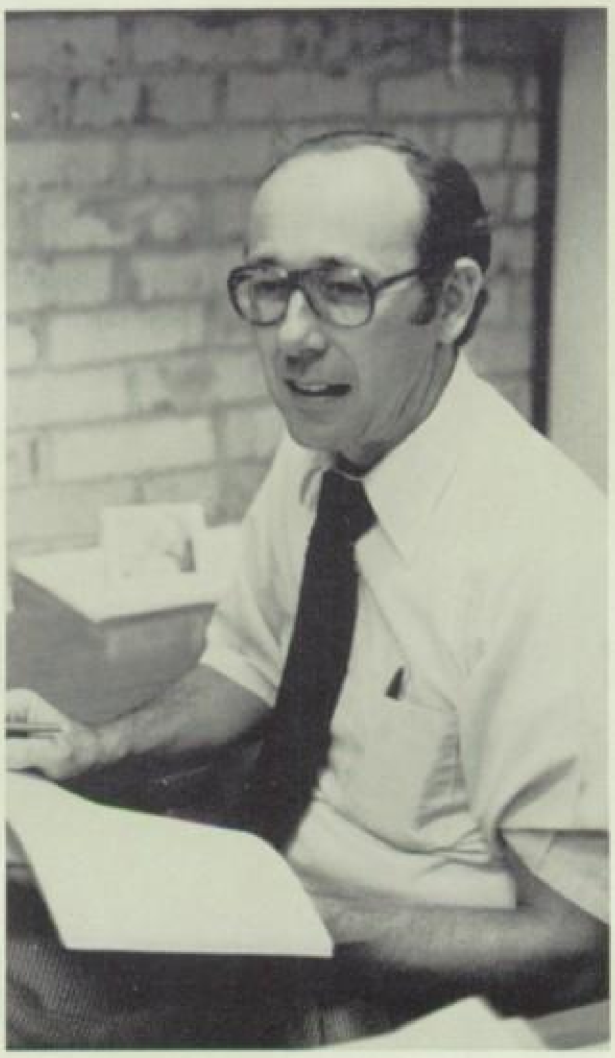

Herman Croom – Assistant Principal

Mr. Croom is not only a respected figure of authority, but also a respected teacher. With his help many students have achieved goals they thought were impossible.

Douglas Davis – Attendance Counselor

Mr. Davis is the "father" of the school. He wants to know: Where are you going? When will you return? and Did you ask your mother?

The PATRONS

The Spiriteers is Eastern Wayne High School's newest club. It is a group of exciting students involved in inner school activities as well as community activities. To better conditions in the school as well as in the community is the group's major goal. The Spiriteers are considered to be "helping hands" to anyone that desires their services.

This year the Spiriteers will be sponsoring Eastern Wayne's first beauty pageant, with Miss Sharon Wilson, the club sponsor, as acting director.

The Secret Of Success Is Service

SPIRITEERS

MUSIC SUPPORTERS

The Music Supporters Club was organized in 1977. The purpose of the group is to encourage and to assist financially the Eastern Wayne Music Department.

Disco dances, turkey and ham raffles, yard sale, doughnut sales, and a Warrior statue raffle have raised money for the club's endeavor.

The Eastern Wayne Warrior Club, now in its tenth year, is a multi-sport club that contributes to the school's total athletic program. It is not a social organization but a hard-working group of parents, former students, and patrons from the community who work in close relationship with school administration and coaching staff.

For the past several summers, the Warrior Club contributed to the local Babe Ruth Teams. During the week of July 10, 1978, when the school hosted the Babe Ruth Tournaments, members assisted by adding hospitality.

With the completion of the all-weather track in the fall, the club completed its priority project of three years in time for use by the 1978 winning football team.

Even though few people realize it, the true process of producing the 1979 Warrior began at the end of the 1978 school year. The staff tried to redesign the format and change the themes of past annuals. Choosing "The Carnival" as this year's theme, the staff tried to produce continuity throughout the entire book. This began the extremely long and hard process that kept the staff busy throughout the year, and without its members help, the 1979 Warrior would never have been a success.

The staff would like to express its most sincere gratitide to the Eastern Wayne student body for supporting the annual by participating in fund raising projects. Thanks is also due to Doug Price, Greg Lee, Steve Moye, and Dean Wolford for taking and developing pictures when needed, and Dale Edmondson and Beth Shook for their efforts in depicting the theme with their artwork. Finally, the staff wishes to express its appreciation toward Mrs. Patricia Hester, for without her, our efforts would have been [illegible]

[illegible] that the fond memories of this year, whether it be your sophomore, junior, [illegible] can be relived through the pages of the 1979 Warrior.

As the Carnival closes, the infamous rides are dismantled and locked onto trucks. The trucks pull away and leave the premises empty.

For some, the end of this Carnival is the beginning of a new Carnival, filled with happy and sad events. Will the sad and happy events of the Carnival called "School" be remembered and cherished?

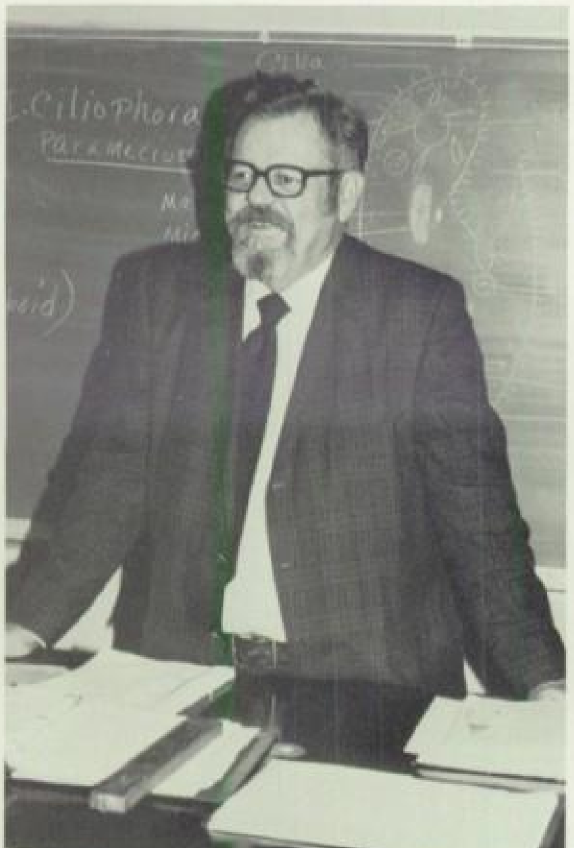

IN MEMORY

by Lola Capps

On April 17, 1978, Eastern Wayne Senior High School lost one of its best and most beloved students. Pattie Joyce Whitfield was known as a friend to everyone. There was never a time when you would find her not wearing a smile. Many knew her as the "V.W. Kid", but most of us knew her as Pattie – the girl who brought sunshine into everyone's life. We thank God for the opportunity of having known Pattie and for the part she played in all of our lives.

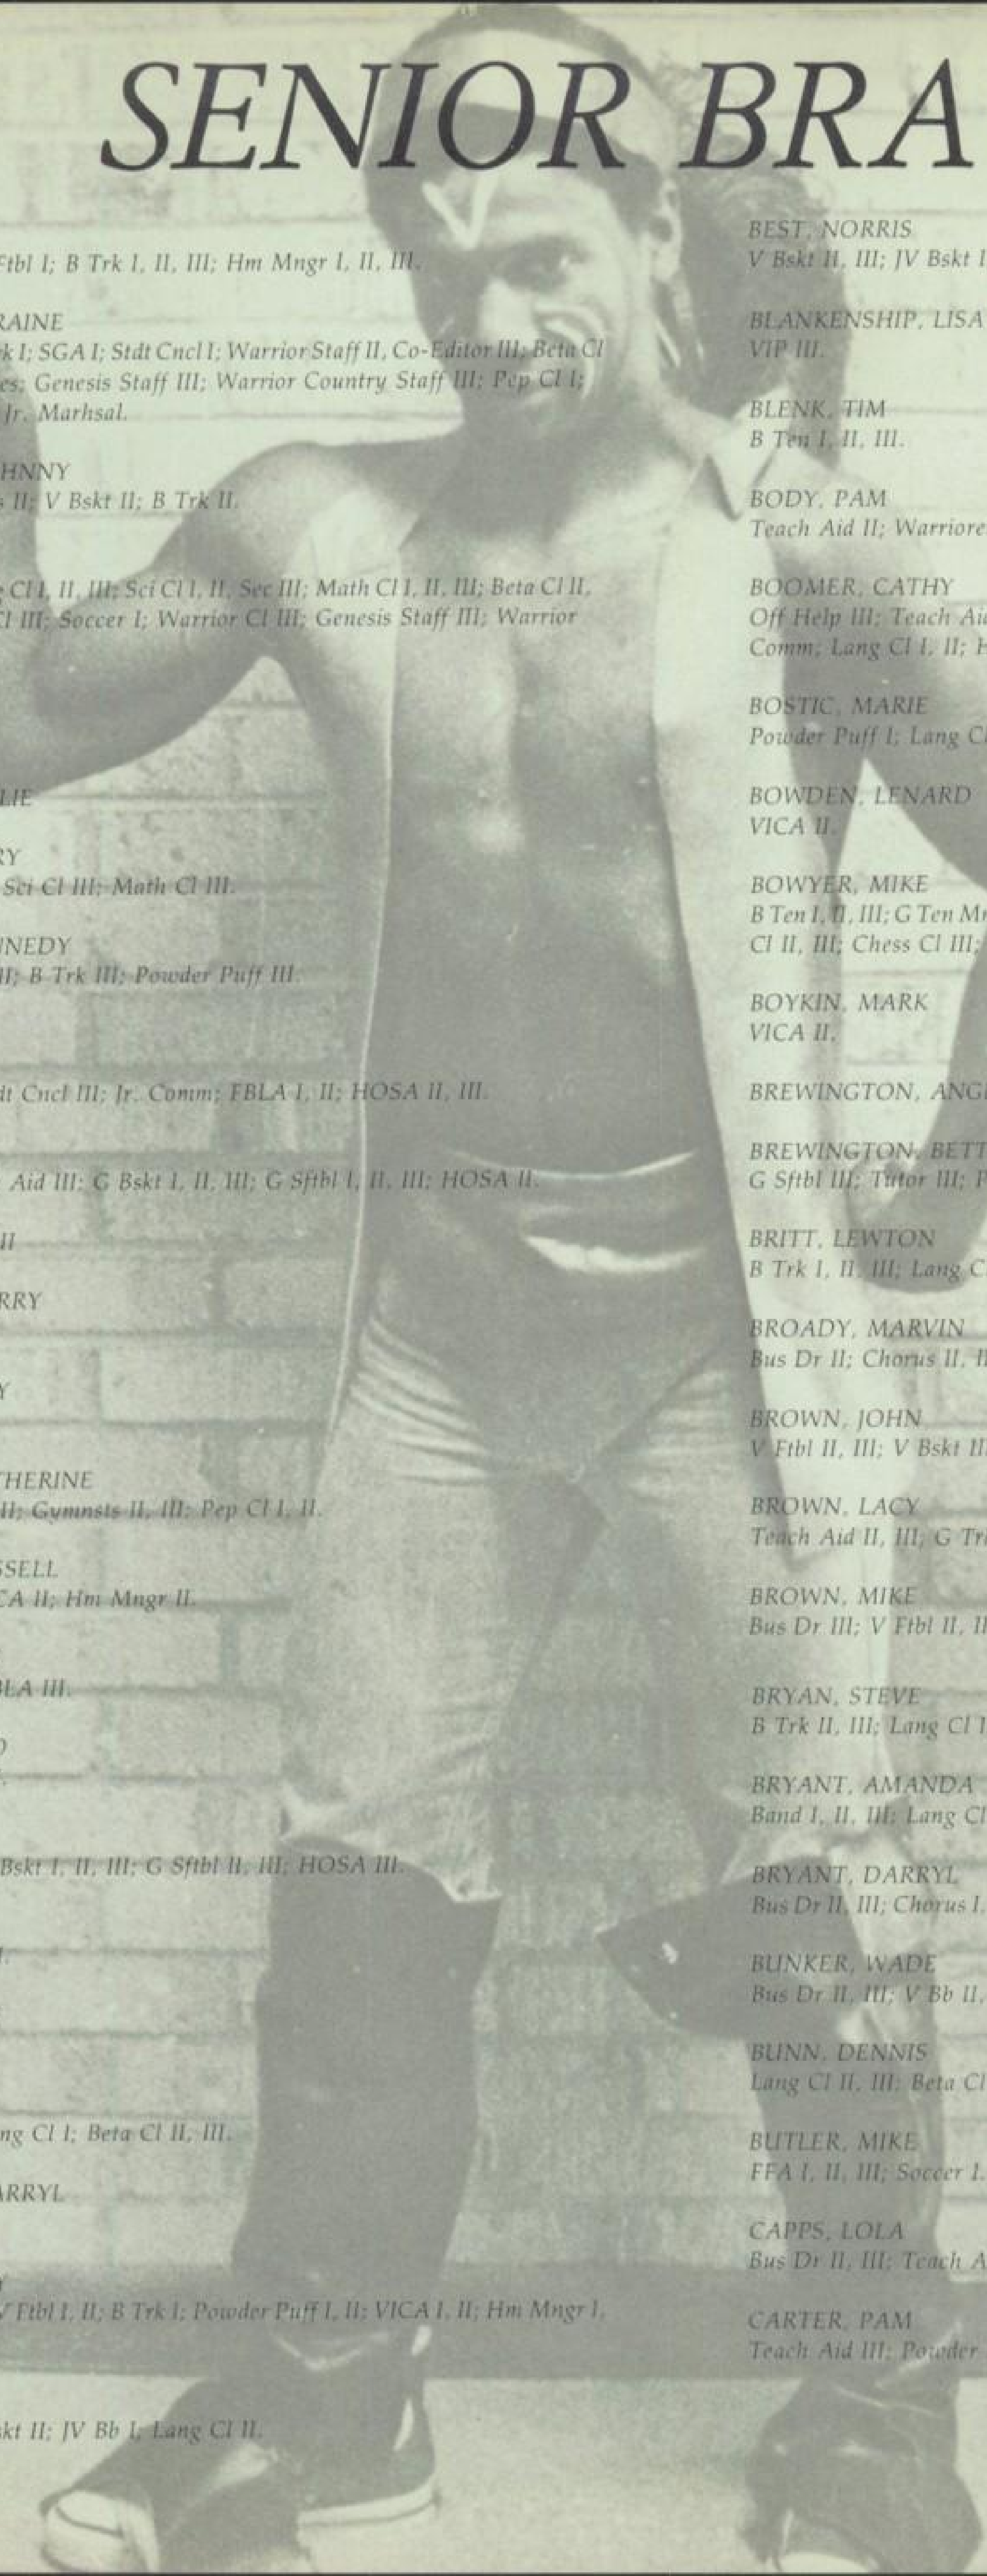

LIGHT REGAINED

To Sam Thomas

Extended shadows creep slowly at dusk
Filling the atmosphere with darkness
Save the scarlet reds, fused yellow and orange
Glowing deep from beneath the horizon.
One shadow melts hesitantly
As a single bright star appears low on the skyline.
From the lone shadow
A gleam streaks faintly toward the evening star.
There is a fusion, a quiver,
And brighter, brighter light
In the quieter, quieter night.

It's been great having you in my

Lynn,
Autographing your

To Lynn

I know that you wanted me to write on the other page but I just felt like every time you saw this page you would say; Hey I remember James, he was soo nice, and intelligent, I just know he will be a good doctor, a great football player, and so many other sorry wounderfull things that I just can't name them all.

But truly Lynn,

I hope that you are a success in all the things that you try.

"Let the sky be your limit".

Love Always and Forever
